

We need to wrap-up this first section on Isaiah chapter 1-12. You will have two weeks to work on this lesson. Please pace yourself accordingly.

Appendix A

First off, we are going to look at appendix A found in the back of your guide. Appendix A is for writing down everything concerning the terms “the last days,” “in that day,” and “on that day.” Some of you have already done this, but for you that have not, this will be your opportunity to catch up. Mark these words in some special way; I mark them with a rectangle colored in with brown pencil. I would suggest that you use only your double-spaced worksheets for doing this assignment. After we finish this lesson and you are certain of your observations, then you may transfer them to your Bible if you wish. I also would suggest that you write what will happen in “the last days,” “in that day,” and “on that day,” in the words of the text and where in the text it is found. Here are three examples:

2:2 “in the last days”

the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established as the chief mountain

2:10 “in that day”

the LORD alone will be exalted

11:11 “on that day”

the LORD will recover the second time with His hand the remnant of His people

This will take you quite some time if you write down the words of the text, but the rewards will be great, as you will be planting scripture in your mind as you do this. You also may want to add some notebook pages to Appendix A as this assignment will take up more space than you’ve been allotted on the page provided.

After you have finished this assignment, mark the references (for example, mark the “2:2” for Isaiah chapter 2, verse 2) in yellow, green, red, purple or blue pencil according to the following scheme:

If the words “the last days,” “in that day,” or “on that day,” refer to the

Millennial Kingdom, mark with yellow

The Tribulation Period, mark with green

Possibly just prior to and into the end of the Tribulation Period, mark with red

Isaiah’s time and may happen again in the last days, mark with purple

Fulfilled in His 1st coming and will be evident when He comes again, mark blue

Speaks of His 2nd coming, mark with orange

Appendix B

Secondly, appendix B is for writing down everything that you learned about Babylon in this first part of Isaiah. Follow the same rules as above, writing down the words of the text and also recording where the text is found. There is not a whole lot concerning Babylon in these first 12 chapters and the references are scattered. So, I will give these references to you and you can transfer them to your Appendix B and write the words of the text accordingly.

Isaiah 3:1-3, Isaiah 5:26-30, Isaiah 11:15
Isaiah 11:16 (Babylon is in the same general vicinity as Assyria and this verse may be referring to Babylon).

Appendix C

Thirdly, appendix C is for writing down all that you discovered in these first 12 chapters that would be considered Messianic prophecies. I will give you one clue in finding these references. Some of the references to Messianic prophecies have a name for God revealed in the words. Follow the same rules as for Appendix A and B, writing down the “words of the text” and their references.

Appendix D

Lastly, write down every thing you have learned about the Millennium in chapters 1-12 in Appendix D.

Breaks in the Text

Next, I would like you to place a horizontal line between the following verses on the individual double-spaced worksheets for chapters 1-12. The reason that I’m giving these to you is so that you can recognize major shifts in either thought or time in these prophetic passages.

Between:

2:4, 2:5

5:29, 5:30

2:9, 2:10

7:17, 7:18

2:22, 3:1

10:19, 10:20

4:1, 4:2

11:5, 11:6

4:6, 5:1

11:10, 11:11

Reread Isaiah 1 through 12

Reread and write the major theme of each chapter at the top of each double-spaced worksheet for Isaiah 1-12. Some chapters have more than one theme. After you complete this assignment transfer your information to the Isaiah-theme-summary chart found also in the Appendix, noting the theme of Isaiah, the author, date written and segment divisions if you can.
